

RODNEY LOVE | LIVE LONG

A nation without purpose will not live long

Without something to live for we will not live long

With differences dividing us we will not live long

Do I stand around while people say I won't live long?

And if true that none will live long

Taking my destiny in my own hands, I will live long

And to those who said I won't live long

The creator has spoken that I will live long

Rodney Love is an innovator, paralegal clerk, and history aficionado. He particularly enjoys civil law. Some of his hobbies include cooking, working out, studying (religions, the science of the self, the civil rights movement, the constitution, the love of family), and listening to playlists that take him to other worlds.
